

Plan Your Trip to a Comfortable Retirement

The summer season is here! Many of us are thinking about summer vacations and exploring new places. Big trips take a lot of planning and preparation, just like the journey to retirement.

A little effort and planning can impact how quickly you get to your destination. Even small contributions of $25 a month can add up, making a big difference down the road.

Consider setting up automatic contributions each month to build a tidy sum for your next alternative investment. By growing the retirement funds in your self-directed IRA, you can help ensure your vacations continue after retirement.

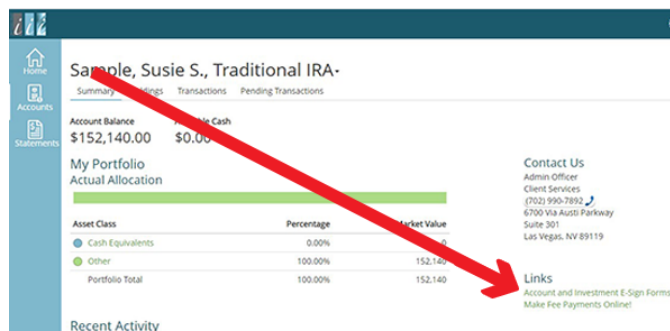

Want to make contributions to your IRA as easy as summer breeze? Set up automatic direct deposit from your checking or savings account!

To make a contribution, follow these steps:
